SOCIETY OF PLAYWRIGHTS

FAIR WORK POLICY

The Scottish Society of Playwrights is committed to the principles of Fair Work as set out in the Scottish government's Fair Work Framework 2016.

To that end SSP undertakes that all its activities, whether organisational or in collaboration with partner organisations and venues, will:

- Conform to the principles of offering effective voice, opportunity, security, fulfilment and respect.
- Balance the rights and responsibilities of SSP and any workers, whether contracted or freelance, which it employs.
- Be designed to generate benefits for individuals, organisations and society.
